

Environmental and Social Impact Coordinator

Part Time (0.6 – 0.8)

INTERNAL ONLY

Location: Home/Plymouth

Working hours: 22.2 to 29.6 hours (3 or 4 days) considered

£26,000 FTE

We have an exciting new opportunity for an Environmental and Social Impact Coordinator within CSW Group. We are looking for a member of the team who is passionate about delivery and ongoing improvement with a focus on People and the Environment.

This is an opportunity to be part of a dynamic, collaborative team within a role focussed on supporting the progression of the Company Environmental Strategy and People Strategy whilst we work toward a carbon neutral/net zero position and continue to develop and improve employee engagement, welfare and wellbeing within the workplace, social engagement and social inclusion.

You would need a flexible and adaptable approach to support and develop programs of implementation, monitoring, compliance and continuous improvement.

Experience and ability of working collaboratively both internally and with external providers or advisers within focussed project work would be beneficial.

You would need to have an aptitude for communicating with a wide range of people through a variety of channels and have a solution focussed approach, with experience and proficiency in the use of ICT including via social media.

CSW Group offers 25 days holiday a year (part time pro rata), all bank holidays plus 3 additional 'thanks holidays' (usually between Christmas and New Year), paid birthday leave, a paid charity day, a generous employer supported pension scheme, access to a company provided healthcare scheme and a cycle to work scheme.

CSW Group are the largest single provider of information, advice and guidance services across the Southwest region and operate a range of contracts supporting young people to make successful transitions at key points of their lives. This work includes careers guidance services in schools and the community, supporting young people with a range of individual needs including SEND, mental health and those involved in the Youth Justice system, as well as working with those not in education or employment (NEETs) to re-engage them in positive outcomes.

Apply with an expression of interest with detail on how your experience and ability would enable you to meet the responsibilities and duties within the job description.

Please e-mail your application to recruitment@cswgroup.co.uk. Details can be made available in alternative formats upon request.

Vacancy reference: 2000

Closing date: Monday 25th April (12.00 midday)

Interview date: TBC

Through its work CSW Group actively safeguard and promote the welfare of young people and vulnerable adults and all employees and volunteers and others working on behalf of the company are required to share this commitment. Successful individuals will be required to undergo full vetting checks including an enhanced disclosure by the Disclosure and Barring Service.

We are an equal opportunities employer and positively encourage applications from suitably qualified candidates regardless of gender, race, age, disability, sexual orientation, religion or belief.

